1. DEPOSIT

A 50% deposit is used to secure Emmy’s services, and to reserve your date. This is a non-refundable deposit.

2. PAYMENT

Payment is divided into two payments, the 50% deposit which is required to reserve the date, and the final payment which is due at time of pick-up of the finished piece. Payment may be made via Venmo (@Emmy-hunter), cash, or credit card (without a convenience fee). Failure to pay will result in a delay of receiving your finished piece until full payment is made. Sale of finished artwork is final.

3. RESERVING YOUR DATE

Emmy requires that your bottle be dropped off in advance to give adequate time for the painting. This ensures that your bottle is finished by the required date of return. Bottles are to be painted and completed within the given month discussed.

3a. If the bottle is not dropped off by discussed date, then a rush fee will be charged, or Emmy may deem that not enough time remains to complete the painting. If not enough time remains in the month, or a bottle is not dropped off, then your spot will be forfeited. If the client would still like a painting, then the original deposit will be used to secure the new spot and the client’s bottle will be rescheduled for Emmy’s next available spot.

8. REVISIONS & REWORKS

If client is unhappy with the outcome of the painting, then revisions can be made. A total of two (2) revisions/reworks will be provided for a painting. If after two reworks the client is still dissatisfied with the finished piece, then additional revisions will be an additional expense. Every rework after the initial two revisions will cost $15/per rework. Reworks may be limited, if painting is showing signs of overworking (excess build up).

5. COMPLETION

The painting(s) will be completed in Emmy’s studio by or before the requested date of collection. If shipping of an empty bottle or decanter is required, then the client will be responsible for shipping cost. Painting will be completed in a simplistic style, and will have artistic interpretation. Paintings will be accurate to the plans/sketches decided and discussed about during consultation.
